IV- Reading Comprehension (14 Marks)

Read the following passage , then answer the questions below:

I used to be a bookish man. I really spent long nights reading and reading. I learned lots of things, I got a lot of information and my brain became like a big encyclopaedia. The only thing I couldn't learn was the importance of keeping my health, and that I was damaging it by staying too late at night. My doctor advised me many times. He wanted me to change that bad habit, but unfortunately the only sound I heard was that of my books.

Once, it was 2 a.m and I was awake, as usual, eating the lines of an interesting book with my reddish eyes. I felt a strange pain and I was lucky that my family managed to take me to hospital. The doctor hesitated for a while, but he, finally, said: "Mr. James! I'm sorry; it's a very bad disease." My doctor did his best, but I grew worse and worse. Four weeks later, the only thing that worked in my body was my brain and mouth. I could hardly talk and I couldn't even move; until I remembered the names of some useful *herbs I had once read about. I asked for them and to the surprise of all, those herbs were the only cure as they helped me to regain my good health again. I learned a very important lesson; I can still read books, but I, no more, stay late at night.

*herbs plants that are used as medicine
