Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage and answer the questions below:

A car drew up outside the Swan Hotel and a young man got out. Pausing only for an instant to see that he had come to the right place, he went into the hotel and rang the bell on the counter of the bar. Mrs. Grump, the landlady, who was busy in the kitchen at the time, hurried out, wiping her hands. The young man raised his hat. "Excuse me," he said. "I'm looking for my uncle, Mr. White. I believe he is staying here." "He was staying here," Mrs. Grump corrected him. "But I'm afraid that he went back to London yesterday. ""Oh dear," said the young man, looking disappointed. "I understood that he was going to stay here until the end of the month. At least, that is what his servant told me when I rang up his house." "Quite right," said Mrs. Crump. "He intended to stay here the whole Jul as he always does. But yesterday he got a telegram to say that one of his relatives was ill. So he caught the train back to London immediately." "I wish he had let me know," the young man said. "I wrote him a letter saying that I was coming. I've had all this trouble for nothing. Well, since he isn't here, there is no point in waiting.

Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

When I was in the countryside last summer, I went fishing with my friend Ali, early in the morning. We were sitting quietly by the side of the river when my friend had an unpleasant surprise. While he was standing on a low bridge, he had the misfortune to knock his tin of bait into the river. Leaning over the side of the bridge, he tried to hook the tin and pull it out of the river. As he did so, his car keys fell out of his pocket and disappeared in the water. My friend leant over the bridge to see where his keys had gone. As he did so, the bridge broke down and he himself fell into the river.

I couldn't help him because I didn't know swimming at that time, but I gave him a rope to scramble, he crawled out of the river and went back to his car. There, he discovered that he locked the doors and could not get in.

We tried to search for the keys and also tried to open the car's windows, but we failed to do that , at last my friend called his brother to come and get us back to the home , we're very sad.
