Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

Bob had a rabbit. He never remembered being without it. Yet he sometimes didn't remember to feed it. It lived by itself in a little box in a garden and it was so tame that it was allowed to walk around almost every day. Bob was not old enough to go to school and so he played in the garden every day when it was fine, and the rabbit was never far away. It was black and white and so he could see it easily, even though it sometimes went into the very long grass.

Once Bob went to its box to feed it as usual but it was not there. He searched for it everywhere. Finally, he saw it jumping through a pile of old things. He chased it, but it got into a bin. When he reached inside, it scratched his hand. When he turned the bin over, a big black and white cat with three newborn kittens fell off it !! The cat looked like the rabbit in the distance.
