VI-Reading Comprehension (150 Marks)

150

Read the following passage carefully, and then answer the questions:

We all learn from life. When a child is born, he is not capable of doing anything. He depends on his parents for all of his needs. He starts learning everything from this very beginning .The memory keeps piling up things to be used later in life. For example, the child does not know that fire is hot and harmful until he touches it. When a person reaches an age of 50 , he/she has enjoyed almost everything in life, kids, different jobs, different relations, travelling and a lot more. The elders are ahead of us in age, experience, wisdom and maturity.

An elderly person is a kind of portable library with a lot of practical experience in it. Senior people are thus a great source of knowledge for the youngsters. They have learned all that with their own experience after hardships and sufferings. We have a golden chance to learn from them the lessons that they have already learned. We might disagree with them on certain matters but these are only a few and this is because of the changing world. However, for most of the things, their advice is always useful. There are certain things in life we consider good when we are young. As time passes, our views on them changes and we come to realise that it was not a good decision to go that way. Our elders play a vital role in selecting or rejecting such things.

If you find an elder trying to cross the road, go ahead and help. If you have senior elders in your house, spare some time for them. Our elders would really feel happy then . Sit with them. They always like to talk about their own time. Listen to them. If you are travelling in a public transport and notice seniors standing by, offer your seat to them. They will really feel happy and respected. While on job, senior employees definitely have more experience for that job and can help us a lot. If you are going in your car and notice an elder walking by, you can offer a pick up if the destination is the same for both of you.

Finally, the simple rule is; everyone wants to be respected. If we do not respect our elders, we should not expect our younger would respect us when the time comes and we need their help. They took care of us when we were kids and it is our time to pay back when they reach that stage of life. They expect respect and help from young ones.

A) Choose the best answer from a, b, c and d: ( 5 X 10 = 50 m )

26) The best title for this passage could be .....

- a) The Elders' Invaluable Experience
- b) The Elders' Library

27) The underlined word "piling up" in the 1st paragraph means :

- a) Taking care of
- b) Accumulating
- c) Paying back
- d) Picking up

28) We can understand from the 1st paragraph that .....

- a) children rely on others at an early age
- b) newly born children are self dependent
- c) children at an early age are independent.
- d) children can satisfy their needs by themselves.

29) The underlined word "It" in the 2nd paragraph refers to .....

- a) wisdom
- b) maturity
- c) age
- d) the portable library

30) One of the following statements is TRUE according to the passage :.....

- a) Our elders play a vital role only in rejecting things .
- b) As time passes, our views on certain matters don't change .
- c) The seniors' advice is always useful .
- d) Senior employers have no experience .

B- Answer the following questions: (4 X 15 = 60 m)

31) Why are senior people a great source of knowledge for the youngsters?

This is because an elderly person is a kind of portable library with a lot of practical experience in it.

32) Why do the youngsters disagree with the elders on certain matters ?

Because of the changing world.

33) How do the elders learn all that experience in life?

They have learned all that with their own experience after hardships and sufferings.

34) What happens if a person reaches the age of 50?

When a person reaches an age of 50, he/she has enjoyed almost everything in life, kids, different jobs, different relations, travelling and a lot more.

C- Summary Making: ( 40 marks)

In Four sentences of your own, summarize the 3rd paragraph in an answer to the following question :

How can we make the senior elders happy and satisfied?

If you find an elder trying to cross the road, go ahead and help. If you have senior elders in your house, spare some time for them. If you are travelling in a public transport and notice seniors standing by, offer your seat to them. If you are going in your car and notice an elder walking by, you can offer a pick up if the destination is the same for both of you.

Any reasonable Answer is Accepted

VII-Translation (50 Marks)

50

A- With reference to the 4th paragraph , translate the following into good Arabic: ( 30 m )

Finally, the very simple rule is; everyone wants to be respected. If we do not respect our elders, we should not expect our younger would respect us when the time comes and we need their help. They took care of us when we were kids and it is our time to pay back when they reach that stage of life.

وأخيراً القاعدة بسيطة جداً وهي أن كل إنسان يريد أن يُحترم من الجميع فإذا لم نحترم كبارنا فلا يجب أن ننتظر أن يحترمنا صغارنا عندما يحين الوقت و نحتاج مساعدتهم . فلقد اهتم بنا الكبار عندما كنا صغاراً والآن حان الوقت أن نرد لهم ما فعلوه عندما وصلوا إلى هذه المرحلة من الحياة .

B- Translate the following into good English : ( 20 m )

ماجدة : لازالت المقالات النقدية للأفلام هي الوسيلة الأساسية التي تمدنا بالنصح حول ما يجب أن نشاهده من أفلام.
هدى : هذا صحيح ، و لكن يجب أن تكون مصاغة ( مكتوبة ) بشكل جيد.

Majda : Film reviews have been ( are still ) an essential way of advising us which films we should see ( watch ).

Huda : That's true. But they should always be well written.

End Of Exam

Good Luck
