Reading ComprehensionRead the following passage then answer the questions below:

Sami has never flown on an airport before. He was very nervous as he rolled his suitcase toward the departing gate. A very gentle man checked his ticket and told him it was time to board. When he and his father found their seats, they put their seatbelts and waited for the plane to take off. Sami clutched the armrests of his seat so tightly. "How long will we be on the air?" asked Sami. "About three hours," answered his father, "But don't worry, I brought some books and board games. The time will pass quickly." Sami started to relax a little when his father read a funny story. Then they played cards and read some more books. At 6 o'clock pm later, the plane landed, and they walked out of the plane into the airport terminal, he saw another boy who is the same age as his age getting ready to board a different plane. Sami remembered how that felt. "Don't be scared," he said with a big, friendly smile. "Flying is fun."

Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

We have five senses that help us learn about the world around us. They are; tasting, seeing, touching, smelling, and hearing. These senses usually work together to give us a clear picture of all things. If one sense is not working because of an illness, then the other senses will be stronger to make up for the missing one. Teeth are strong because they have to keep working for many years. Healthy gums are also very important. They help to hold our teeth in place. If you want to keep your teeth and gums healthy, you shouldn't eat too much sweets or sticky food. We have four types of teeth, and each one has a special function. The first type is sharp. We use it to bite food. The second type is to tear food. The third and fourth types have flat tops to grind food.

Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

One summer day, a great lion laid asleep under a shady tree in the forest. A mouse that was playing near him woke him up. The lion was so angry that he was going to kill it, but the mouse begged to be forgiven, and said, " If you let me go, I will help you one day."

The lion laughed because he did not think that a mouse could ever do him any good, but he let the mouse go. After two weeks, the mouse heard the lion. The mouse came quickly and saw that the lion was caught by a hunter's net. The mouse, with its sharp teeth, could cut the ropes of the net. The lion was able to get a way. The lion was happy and thanked the mouse for its great help.
