A biography is a written account of someone's life.

A biography contains many details about a person who is usually famous.

Roald Amundsen was born in Borge, Norway in 1872. In 1911, he became the first person to reach the South Pole. He hoped to follow the footsteps of his hero—the British Arctic explorer: John Franklin. When he turned twenty-one years of age, he set out to turn his dream into a reality by preparing for a polar expedition.

On 14 January 1911, in preparation for his expedition to the South Pole, that took almost a year, he created a camp in the Bay of Whales, Antarctica. It included planning the journey, selecting his team members, organising supplies and practising with sled dogs and Siberian ponies. Amundsen set off on the expedition on the 20th of October, leading a team of five people and fifty-two dogs with four sleds. They reached their destination on the 14th of December 1911. In 1926, he reached the North Pole by airplane. This made him the first person to stand at both ends of the globe. Admundsen's exact date of death is unknown because he disappeared in June of 1928 when his plane crashed into the Arctic Ocean while he was trying to rescue a friend.

Long day's journey into white

Felicity Aston is a British Polar Explorer living in Iceland. In 2012 she became the first person in the world to ski alone across Antarctica using just muscle power (no kites or machines). The journey of 1744 km took her 59 days and gave her a place in the book of Guinness World Records. She went on to complete numerous journeys in Antarctica and other cold regions of the world including Greenland and Siberia.

Felicity regularly speaks to a variety of audiences around the world about her expedition experiences as well as more generally about Polar Science, Antarctica and Meteorology, and has written three books about the polar regions which have been translated into several languages.

In groups, choose the three most important points needed to give a speech good memory – loud voice – charisma – expressive face – confidence – acting – belief – smiling – body language – eye contact

3

Speaking activity: On the occasion of His Highness the Amir's honouring as "Humanitarian Leader" you have been asked to give a speech about humanitarian work in Kuwait. Discuss these ideas with your group before you start making your speech.

- How does the award inspire you to do more for your community?
- What type of humanitarian work is there in Kuwait?
- Which charities do you know?
- How can you support charities?
- Is there any voluntary work in your school?

Tips for making a speech

- * Talk about what you know
- * Organize: every speech should have an introduction, a body, and a conclusion.
- * Tell stories.
- * Avoid words, like "well", and "um".
- * Vary your tone, volume, and speed.
- * Smile at the audience.
- * Practice, practice, practice!

1

Grammar: If conditional type 2. Used to talk about hypothetical situations that are unlikely to happen, but possible. We use the if + past tense, would + verb in the infinitive.

If I were you, I wouldn't eat so much junk food.

If The team trained more, they would win the match.

Read the following text about The Environmental Voluntary Foundation to get information on the foundation and how they help the community through volunteer work.

The Environmental Voluntary Foundation started in 1986. Its projects aim to protect the Kuwaiti environment. The Kuwait Diving Team is one of these projects, and they study sea-animals and the coral reef in Kuwait, in order to keep them safe and protected from water pollution and oil spills.

They have beach cleaning campaigns every year for 6 months for students and young people. They educate people about the importance of the environment, sea-life in Kuwait, community service and what we can do to save our environment. They organise cleaning campaigns for everyone in Kuwait to help remove trash, paper, plastic and fishing nets from the beach and from the water. Keeping the sea and beaches clean also means keeping the community safe from polluted water and the danger of sick sea-animals.

1 Write a two-paragraph report about the ways you can volunteer in your community, and what benefits you and the community get from volunteering. Use the provided outline to organise your ideas.

Reading

1 In groups of four, describe the following pictures and say what they have in common. How does it affect the environment? How could this be controlled?

Read the text and answer the questions that follow.

Obviously, it is a fact that pollution from us causes harm to the environment and we are definitely the source of the consequence of human activities. Factories emit a lot of smoke and turn it into because of the suffocating air pollution. It sneezes on top

Secondly, we depend heavily on fossil fuels to work. People and goods. Cars, planes all contribute to pollutants. They cause great harm to people and environmental gases to create further toxic gases.

Last but not least, household cleaning products, pesticides and fertilizers release harmful chemicals into the air. This is a worldwide emergency. Unless we address this problem, we will face a disaster. Pollution is an environmental crisis and needs action.

painting supplies, pesticides and fertilizers. We must act seriously, as this problem requires urgent

2  Choose the right answer:

- c - inform us of the consequences of air pollution
- d - raise awareness of the necessity to save fossil fuels

3  Answer the following questions:

Who did the writer blame air pollution on?

He blames air pollution on humans.

What ideas did he use to defend his opinion? Mention two.

a- They cause harm to the environment.

b- They depend heavily on vehicles and engines.

4  Find the synonyms of the following words in the text:

a - clearly :

obviously

d - poisonous :

toxic

b - release :

emit

e - contaminants :

pollutants

With the help of these pictures discuss practical ideas to reduce pollution:

- 1- we should plant more trees.
- 2- we must impose the environmental law.
- 3- we can use renewable energy.
- 4- we have to forbid using pesticides.

Centre

Sadu House

Before you read

Reading: Expository

- 1  Think, pair, share. In groups, suggest some places for a tourist to visit in Kuwait. Give reasons.

Kuwait Towers : They are modern buildings.

Failaka Island: It has got historical sites.

Sadu House: It is the house of traditional handcrafts.

Read the text to complete the table below. Compare answers with your classmates.

A The highest point in Kuwait, Mutla Ridge, is a perfect place for camping and hiking. It is a steep slope of rocks and one of the geological features of interest in the country. This area is great for mountain biking during winter because of its hard-packed ground.

B It is an unusually extraordinary museum in Kuwait City displaying the creativity and energies developed inside the building. The exterior walls of the House of Mirrors are covered with murals of mirror mosaic. Each piece symbolizes a unique meaning. The interior part is completely covered with splendid mirror mosaic tiles. Some rooms hark back to the good old days of Kuwait. Located in Qadsiya, the house is a private property and belongs to Khalifa and Lidia Al-Qattan. They have turned their house into a museum of incredible mirror art.

C This impressive museum should not be missed. It houses a great collection of items from different countries such as musical instruments, silver and gold jewellery, costumes and pearls. In spite of all these marvellously presented pieces, it's the Arabic manuscripts that give the museum its international importance. The museum is a private collection of antiquities by Tareq Rajab and his wife. It is easily identified by its entrance – a carved wooden doorway flanked by two smaller doors on each side.

D Several museums in Kuwait exhibit the great history, art, artifacts and much more. Sadu House is a prodigious museum that depicts Bedouin crafts namely Sadu weaving. It is located next to the National Museum of Kuwait. Visitors can discover the art of weaving in different styles and history, too. Sadu House or Bait Al Sadu was previously an old Kuwaiti house which has been converted into a cultural center.
