Hi Ali,

I'm Dan. I'm twelve. I'm from Melbourne, Australia. I had a car accident when I was seven. I was with my parents, my baby brother and my older sister. I broke my left hip, and although I had three operations, I still can't walk so I use a wheelchair. Being in a wheelchair didn't limit my abilities; it rather helped me to see the world in a completely different way. I have many hobbies; my favourite is listening to audio stories.

Cave Diving

Ahmed loves all kinds of sports. He plays in the school football team. His best friend, Yaser, plays in the team, too. Both of them can play tennis. Ahmed is also very good at swimming.

One day, Ahmed and Yaser saw a programme on TV. It is about a new sport called cave diving.

Ahmed: I want to try that!

Yaser: It looks dangerous to me.

Ahmed: I need good equipment and a good teacher, that's all.

It is the day of Ahmed's first cave dive. His diving equipment is very heavy. He holds a coloured blue line to show him where to swim. He follows his teacher. He dives down into a very big cave.

The water is warm. The cave is quite dark. He can see his teacher's light in front of him. Then, suddenly, he can't see the light. Ahmed is afraid! Does he follow the teacher? No! He holds the blue line and waits. He waits for five minutes, but it feels like a long time. He remembers two important things. One: don't leave the line. Two: don't follow, think!

His teacher comes back. Ahmed is very happy. Together they swim out of the cave to safety.

Comprehension (Cave Diving)

Read the story and decide if the sentences are true (T) or false (F).

Sky is the Limit

RIO DE JANEIRO, Sept 11, 2016 (KUNA):

Ahmad Al-Mutairi came first in the men's 100 m race at the Rio 2016 Paralympics.

Ahmad Al-Mutairi is a Kuwaiti para-sport athlete who has broken numerous world records in wheelchair racing. Al-Mutairi was introduced to sport while at school, playing wheelchair basketball. One of his PE teachers saw potential in Almutairi and suggested that he join the Kuwaiti Sports Club for the Disabled. Initially he joined the basketball team, but after five months, one of the trainers advised him to try other sports. Almutairi tried out wheelchair racing and found that he excelled at the sport. In 2009 he entered his first track and field competition, held in the United Arab Emirates.

In 2011, he took part in the World Championships in New Zealand. In 2012, Al-Mutairi was selected for the Kuwait team at the Summer Paralympics in London. The next year, Al-Mutairi travelled to Lyon to compete in the 2013 Athletics World Championships. His first major medal success came the following year at the 2014 Asian Para Games in South Korea where he was able to win two silver medals. Throughout 2015, Almutairi continued to improve his times, and set a new world record in Switzerland. Later that year he represented Kuwait at his third World Championship, in Doha, Qatar. In the final he set a championship record of 17.53 to beat his nearest rival by over a second and a half.

DESERT DELIGHTS: CAMPING IN KUWAIT

Kuwait: One of the joys of life for Kuwaitis is to spend time in the desert. Desert camping is a popular old Kuwaiti tradition. It's ideal between November and March when temperatures go down and the weather is cold.

In the past, camping required only a tent. At night, lights were provided by oil lamps, and cooking was done over the campfire.

Today's modern camping experience involves so much more. There are modern appliances and facilities available in the camps. People use small tents as sleeping places and large family tents as family gathering places which are supplied with lights, satellite television and couches. There is usually a kitchen that is made of aluminum and may include a gas stove for cooking.

People spend a day or a week in camps. They enjoy many desert activities.

During the day, children and young people enjoy playing different ball games, board games and kite flying. Family members and friends have Arabic coffee and dates, walk in the desert, watch TV and finish with barbecue dinner. At night, they all sit around the campfire and tell stories.

Read the newspaper article, then match the headings with the paragraphs.
