Digital Communication

Module 3

Expository Text

Before you read

1  Answer the following question:

How do you usually communicate with your friends?

We all have ideas, feelings and opinions that we want to communicate to other people. Communication helps us convey information, it has improved over the years as the ways we communicate have changed gradually.

Oral culture was very important in the past. People had to store all their knowledge in their memories before writing was invented. Older people told stories and facts to the younger generations. Later, people learned to carve and paint pictures on stones. They used them to exchange ideas. After writing was invented, people were able to write down everything they knew.

The inventions of printing, telephone, radio, television and computer changed the way we communicate. Nowadays, we get a lot of our information from the internet. Today, communication satellites send signals across the globe. Consequently, we can experience world events as they happen. Now, communication happens much more efficiently.

Today's technology has made communication faster and easier. We can watch news stories from all over the world, learn facts and information and talk to our families and friends even from miles away. However, we must remember to talk to people face to face because communication is more than just words. Meeting in person allows us to show our true personalities, emotions and reactions.

2  Read the text and match the paragraphs with their headings:

- | | | |
|-------------|-------|---------------------------------|
| Paragraph 1 | (4) | Modern communication |
| Paragraph 2 | (2) | Communication in the Past |
| Paragraph 3 | (1) | The importance of Communication |
| Paragraph 4 | (3) | Development of Communication |

3  Read again and answer the following questions:

- Why is communication important ?
- What was the main source of information in the past?
